

'PHONE STRIKE'S DECLARED ENDED

Bell Company Resumes Amicable Relations With Union Electrical Workers.

ADVANCE IN WAGE SCALE

CONCESSIONS MADE SUBSTANTIALLY AS OFFERED AT OUTSET.

W. F. Ramsey, President Local 27, Salt Lake, announced today that the proposition of J. R. Currie, District President, of the Bell Telephone Company, to resume amicable relations with the union electrical workers, was accepted.

After a strike, inaugurated May 21, 1907, the Bell Telephone Company and its union employees are now once again on amicable terms. The telephone strike is off. Yesterday a telegram was received from Butte signed by J. R. Currie, the president of the district council, quoted at the beginning of this article, in which the announcement is made that the proposition of a settlement, referred by the district council on June 11 to a referendum vote, has been accepted.

The general terms of the agreement are that the men will receive an advance of 25 cents a day in the three states of Utah, Idaho and Wyoming, and 50 cents in Montana, outside of Butte and Anaconda, where a former scale is still in effect, and in which places the men went out in sympathy and not on account of any grievance of their own. When the Butte agreement was made the sympathetic strike clause was inserted.

The Bell company during the early part of the strike offered concessions to the men, which, according to the officials, are practically the terms which now have been agreed upon. The new scale is practically that which is being paid to the non-union men who took the union strikers' places.

Measured in dollars and cents, the general provisions of the agreement—eliminating technicalities and shop rules—the wages of linemen in Utah, Idaho and Wyoming, now will be $3.50; sub-foremen, $3.75; foremen, $4; cable splicers, $4.25; and "trouble shooters," $5 a month. A "trouble shooter" is the man who repairs the telephone lines. It is out of order and does general repair work. In Montana linemen will get $3.75 per day.

B. H. Roberts Assists.

During the final negotiations, those which resulted in bringing about a settlement of the strike, B. H. Roberts lent material assistance. He came into the parlaying at the request of the men, and so successful was he in bringing about a harmonious settlement that the greatly desired result has been attained. This is another victory for arbitration, as conducted by Mr. Roberts. His most notable achievement along this line was the settlement of the street car strike of a year and a half ago and the electric light employees' strike of last year.

The district council of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers met recently at Pocatello, Idaho, after the meeting the terms of the settlement were submitted to the referendum, with the result stated. The council is J. R. Currie, president; Salt Lake, W. F. Ramsey, secretary-treasurer; Boise, J. H. Steele, Billings, Henry Whalen, Cheyenne, R. C. Fisher, Ogden.

Expect to Return to Work.

W. F. Ramsey, president of the local division said last evening that, although he did not see the official figures on the referendum vote, he was of the opinion that it was practically unanimous.

"The men," said Mr. Ramsey, "will return to work without prejudice and under working conditions practically the same as those which prevailed before the strike. A few immaterial changes have been made, but these are of no public interest and are purely a technical part of the business."

"I am quite sure that all of the men will be back at work within twenty days." The strike in the route system involved approximately 300 men. There are two districts in Utah—the state in general and Cache valley; the route system in the eastern from Hailey to the Wyoming line and the western taking in Boise, Nampa and the Coeur d'Alenes, Montana, has two districts, the state outside of Butte and Anaconda, and the two places named, Wyoming is one district.

M. J. Sullivan, international vice president, has been on the ground for several weeks. The strike, so far as it affected Montana, was settled some weeks ago by an arrangement between the company and the Montana Federation of Labor. Manifestly this settlement has been ratified by the union.

Mayor John S. Bransford yesterday affixed his signature to the ordinance passed by the council Thursday night providing for a special election to be held July 29 for the purpose of deciding on the question of issuing $600,000 in bonds for water and sewer purposes.

A number of the so-called "persuaders" of the "American" party, who forced the insurgents in the council to vote for the ordinance, were present when the mayor signed it. An informal discussion, behind closed doors, followed.

L. C. Kelsey, city engineer, yesterday

furnished the above table of the cost of the various improvements alleged to be contemplated if the bond issue carries. Of the total amount at least $86,000 will go to pay old debts and it has been held by the courts that a bond issue cannot be used for this purpose without special authority from the legislature, and then it must be so indicated in the call for the election and that portion referring to debts previously contracted must be voted on separately.

Because P. J. Moran was paid $75,000 for plastering the conduit $1,000,000 bond issue was not enough to complete the work planned. After the bond issue was exhausted $500,000 was paid out on the intercepting sewer and $30,000 for the new water supply mains out of the general funds of the city.

The administration now intends to replace this money with money which they hope to raise from the bond issue, notwithstanding the fact that the sewer and mains are completed and paid for. This is the only way in which the utterly depleted general fund can be bolstered up until the time when taxes come in, which occurs in November.

The engineer's estimate given above shows $86,000 needed for the completion of the intercepting sewer and pumping plant. Of this amount, $32,000 will go toward the pumping plant, on which nothing has yet been paid, but the remaining $54,000 will be turned into the general fund, along with the $30,000 for the water mains.

In addition there is a $50,000 appropriation for a main sewer on the North bench. This has already been built at the city's expense and the money paid the contractor. If the bond issue carries this amount will also be turned into the general fund, making a total of at least $86,000 to pay old obligations.

BABE ARRIVES UNANNOUNCED, BUT IS WARMLY WELCOMED AT MILES HOME

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Miles, rear of 323 South Seventh East street, at midnight on Thursday. The stork in this instance was far different in appearance from the well-mannered and well-behaved stork which usually visits the home of a family in the city. The stork in this case was a big, husky man.

This human stork was welcome, very welcome, although he didn't know it. He believed that he was bringing something that would be cursed in its innocence and most likely turned over to the police or a foundling home. Had the stork known that the little mite he brought was to be received with open arms, and snuggled close to his chest, he would have been a different man.

What transpired between Mrs. Miles and the stork's burden is a sacred and not for pen to describe nor vulgar eyes to read. Suffice it to say that Mrs. Miles laid a small, red, but gave her undivided attention to the welfare of the stork's burden during the remainder of the night.

One of the chief reasons why the stork and his burden would have been so warmly welcomed at the Miles home is that, only a short time ago, an adopted child was called to its maker. Therefore it is that the prayers that were offered up in the Miles home were for the little mite of two thankful, grateful hearts.

The identity of the stork has not been discovered. In order to prevent and possibility of identification the stork or some one acting for him, had carefully clipped the laundry marks from the babe's garments.

MRS. KOOYMAN STEALS HER BABY FROM STATE STREET ORPHANAGE

Hiding somewhere in Salt Lake, with the baby she stole from the State street orphanage, Mrs. Hulda Kooyman, divorced wife of the notorious John Kooyman, is striving to keep out of the sight of Guardello Brown, chief probation officer of the juvenile court. It is rumored that John Kooyman has a baby in the carrying off of the child, but whether this is true is not known.

Mrs. Ellen B. Nurfey, matron of the orphanage, says that Mrs. Kooyman last Thursday night, when the woman ran away with the child.

Mrs. Kooyman had been married to Kooyman for twenty-seven years when he secured a divorce a few months ago and wedded a younger woman. The abandoned wife is the mother of the fourteen Kooyman children.

When the troubles in the Kooyman family were raging, the younger children were taken from the mother by the authorities and sent to the State street orphanage. Mrs. Kooyman seems to have brooded over the loss of her children, and particularly over the youngest, her 15-months-old boy, Joseph.

IMPROVEMENTS AT POST

Contracts Are Let for Buildings Made Possible by Recent Appropriations.

Improvements at Fort Douglas, made possible by the recent appropriation of nearly $170,000 by congress, will soon be begun.

Contracts have already been let for the construction of a new hospital building and a bakery.

The hospital will be of pressed brick and stone and will be 42x142 feet. It will be erected by the Campbell Building company at a cost of $35,250. Carthy & Deane have been awarded the contract for the plumbing, their bid being $9,000, and the Salt Lake Electric Supply company has the contract for the wiring, which will cost $10,000.

The Campbell company also has the contract for building the bakery. This will cost $12,600. The fixtures will cost several thousand additional. The bakery will be of brick and stone and will be 60x150 feet.

Half of the hospital will be three stories high and the remaining portion will be of two stories, with an attic. There will be two wards, large enough for 18 beds each.

Throughout the building the arrangements will be complete and convenient for the handling of all cases sent there. Contracts are soon to be let for the new barracks and other needed buildings, and Fort Douglas will in a short time take on a new aspect.

ROBT. W. NICOL TO SPREAD OUT

Electrical Business Is Incorporated With Capitalization of $400,000.

A RECORD OF SUCCESS

EMBARKED SIX YEARS AGO WITH $12,600.

Six years ago Robert W. Nicol had $12,600, which he invested in the electrical business. Today Mr. Nicol's share in that business is $173,400. Instead of being the owner of one concern Mr. Nicol controls ten concerns, with establishments in three different states.

After mature deliberation Mr. Nicol came to the conclusion finally that the business had outgrown his capacity to handle it. Eight hundred thousand dollars' worth of business a year is a lot of responsibility for one man, and that is the amount of business transacted last year by Mr. Nicol's companies.

New Company Organized.

Yesterday there were filed in the office of the county clerk articles of incorporation of the Capital Electric company, with a capital stock of $400,000, with shares of $1 each. The concern takes over the business of the Salt Lake Electric Supply company and has real estate in Salt Lake valued at $173,400.

The officers of the new company are: R. W. Nicol, president, sole owner of the former company; A. L. Woodhouse, secretary, superintendent of the Telluride Power companies; C. W. Corfield, secretary and treasurer, electrical engineer for the Utah Copper company. The others included in the board of directors are: C. P. Cahoon, president of the Progress Power & Light company of Murray; C. Walker, manager of the Salt Lake Electric Supply company; H. K. Schieber, manager of the Butte Electric Supply company and George W. Morgan, restaurant owner.

The incorporation in Salt Lake will be followed by the incorporation of all of the houses; the Ogden enterprise has already been incorporated.

String of Money-Makers.

The Nicol properties are a string of profit makers. They have grown and expanded and enlarged their field of business activity. This is a list of them: Electric Supply company, Boise; Pocatello Electric Supply company; Idaho Falls Electric Supply company; Electric Supply & Fixture company of Ogden; Salt Lake Electric Supply company, Electric Manufacturing & Repair works, Salt Lake; Citizens Electric company, Salt Lake; interest in the Utah Electric company; and now the Capital Electric company.

Of the new stock 174,000 shares will be owned by Mr. Nicol. Twenty thousand shares will be owned by employees of the company, managers, superintendents and the like.

Will Spread Out.

"I found that the business was growing too large for one man to handle," said Mr. Nicol, "and therefore I decided to increase the capital and get some good men in with me. As you will see by the personnel of the board of directors the men who are with me are all hustlers and men of experience. I intend to spread out, but I cannot give you the details at this time."

"I am well satisfied with the result of my six years' work. Some of it has been uphill and pretty hard, but the sailing is plain now. I have no doubt that personally, I shall make as much money as I have made and make it without carrying all of the burden of the work and the worry. I mean to take things a little easier from now on and lose nothing by it. We are clear of debt to the nickel and men of experience. I intend to spread out, but I cannot give you the details at this time."

DEATH OF MRS. TOWNSEND

Former Proprietor of Famous Old-Time Hostelry Dies at Advanced Age.

A famous hostess of a famous hostelry was called yesterday when Mrs. Elizabeth Townsend died at her home, 109 Folsom avenue. Mrs. Townsend was 84 years and 17 days of age at the time of her death. She was the widow of the late James Townsend.

Mrs. Townsend was identified with Salt Lake City's best hotel in the early days—the Townsend House, at the southwest corner of West Temple and First South streets. For years the place enjoyed the reputation of being the up-to-date caravansary of the times. All of the notable people who passed through Salt Lake found shelter at this inn.

Afterwards the Townsend hotel became the Continental. No less famed for its hospitality was the hotel than the hostess. Mrs. Townsend was known far and wide as a traveling public. The hotel maintained its own line of buses and carriages, and was the pioneer in this adjunct to the hotel business.

The funeral services will be held Sunday at 12 o'clock in the Fourteenth ward meeting house. The casket will be open from 10:45 until 12 o'clock, and friends are invited. Interment will be in the City cemetery.
